The children of the Christian Church Sunday-school will be given a Christmas treat at the Church Monday.

Wood's patent carpet strip keeps out water and will not rot, just the thing for outside doors. For sale by Whitesides & McKean.

Get one of Wood's patent carpet strips for your outside door. They keep out water and will not rot. For sale by Whitesides & McKean.

John Sullivan, charged with attempting to prevent Officer Norwood from arresting another party several weeks ago, was tried Thursday morning by a jury and fined $25 and costs—amounting in all to $48.

The remains of little Maud, infant daughter of Dr. C. C. Lewis, of Stamping Ground, who died Thursday morning with membranous croup, were interred in the Cemetery at this place yesterday afternoon.

Baird's Minstrel Troupe will give an exhibition at the Opera House on Saturday evening next under the management of Mr. A. C. Wood, lessee.

There will be work in the F. C. degree at the regular meeting of Esoteric Lodge, No. 532, A. Y. M., on Wednesday evening next. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

A Mammoth Minstrel Festival will be held at Cincinnati, commencing Monday, December 31st, and continuing one week. It is to be one of the grandest affairs of the kind ever seen in this country. Five hundred persons will take part in the performances. Excursion rates have been secured on all railroads running into the city.

The new drop curtain has been completed and hung, and is very pleasing to the eye. It represents a landscape painting, framed and resting upon an ariel. In the foreground is a shaded stream with three cows standing in the water, and in the background a green pasture, with mountains in the distance.

The teachers of this county will hold a meeting at the Court-house this afternoon at two o'clock to consider matters of the greatest importance to the school interests of the State, and devise means to secure an early decision in the case now pending in our Circuit Court against the Auditor to compel the paying over to the School Fund of $275,000 railroad tax, which has been used in the ordinary revenue fund. All teachers and others interested in school are earnestly requested to be present.

Jacksonville.

Simon Buford says that if the Frankfort merchants will sell goods as low as he does for twelve months he will break them up.

Miss Sallie Voirs, of Henry county, is visiting her sister, Mr. David Hall, near Tiana.

Died—On Tuesday, December 18th, Miss Mary Shicks, daughter of Mr. Calvin Sheets, of pneumonia, in the fifth year of her age. She leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

Mr. Charles Withorn sold his crop of tobacco last week, at the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, for $17 per barrel. The best sale this season from this neighborhood.

Rip Arnold's Boots.

A pair of boots arrived here Tuesday by express for one of the boys on the Diamond F. ranch. They came from Kentucky, famous for great productions. It finally swamped all the boots of the outfit here at the time to pay the cost of carriage and like Le Fois brought the boots over from the express office one at a time, and had the bystanders help to ease them down to the backland. As a precaution against breaking down, he placed one over the front axle and the other behind. The Judge happened along, and before those who knew his sensitive nature could hide the boots, he had seen them, and his proud crest tell. He sneaked off home, and his friends fear it will be many days before he will again appear upon the street, the shock to his pride at being so terribly outdone on his strongest point being very great. The young man of the Kentucky feet will probably be assigned to some duty about the middle of the Franklyn panning, to allow of his moving about enough for healthful exercise.

The boots in question were sent by mail from this city by Messrs. R. K. McTure & Bro.

Matrimonial.

Mr. Robert Reiden and Miss Hallie Hawkins were married at Cedar Chapel, near Farmdale, Thursday evening by Rev. J. M. Lewis, of this city.

Rev. J. W. Pugh and Miss Hallie Todd will be married at the residence of the bride's father, Capt. H. I. Todd, on Thursday next, December 27th.

Mr. Lee C. Woodson, of Arkansas City, Kanens, and Miss Mary Lynch, of this city, will be married at the Catholic Church on Wednesday evening next, December 26th.

Miss Emma Uterback and Mr. Young Hubbard were married Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's father, in South Frankfort, by Elder George Darric, in the presence of the relatives and a few friends of the parties.

Lieutenant Governor Jas. R. Hindman was married in Dallas, Texas, on Wednesday to Miss Fannie B. Roney, and it is rumored that Judge C. E. Kincaid, Private Secretary to the Governor will soon follow suit, Covington furnishing the bride.

Editor Roundabout:

Mrs. Allie Jones closed her school at Purinton Tuesday, the 18th, much to the regret of her many pupils, who were entirely devoted to her. The pupils had reading and dialogues, and then partook of an elegant lunch given them by their teacher. The following were presented with prizes for having perfect lessons and being regular in attendance: Fannie Rogers, Ida Helmhuber, Lucy Hughes, Ellen Hawkins, Daisy Hughes, Willie Averill.

Capt. Jas. Blackburn's Dog.

Capt. James Blackburn has a wonderfully sagacious dog. Among the innumerable things that he can do, usually considered beyond the ken of dogs, is one very useful accomplishment. He goes to the stall of his master's horse regularly three times a day, and nuzzling the halter with his teeth, leads him down to water and back again. These smart morning services are highly appreciated.—Blue Grass Clipper.

Switzer.

Merry Christmas to one and all.
Mr. Thomas Holder is very ill with pneumonia.

Misses Laura and Katie Hoekensmith made a short visit to our neighborhood this week.

A nice time for sleigh riding. Get out your sleighs, boys, and take the girls out riding.

The prospects are very good for a quiet time here during the holidays. Come, boys, try and have a little fun.

Mr. Wm. Pryor and Miss Laura Jones were married at the residence of the bride's father, near our village, last Wednesday evening at three o'clock. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Died—At his residence, on the 14th, Mr. James Hendrickson, in the 86th year of his age. The deceased leaves a wife, to whom he had been married over sixty years, to mourn his loss.

The Brethren are Satisfied.

Editor Roundabout:—As I am delighted to see that the Government is about to take steps to open a variety of signal stations throughout the State. There is really no reason why the rise and fall of the barometer and thermometer, the measure of rain fall, together with the velocity of the winds, could not be watched and measured with that degree of accuracy not to be excelled by other places in this country. Frankfort has had for years an able corps of signal officers, all of whom passed not than a creditable examination at the time they entered the service. The old corps is to be reconstituted at the prospect of some of their efficient members being assigned to duty in the near future. The following members stood the most creditable and prudent examination of any members of the corps, viz: John Evans Mills, James Moore Wakefield, John Milton Coleman, Stephen Fitz James Tralene, George Washington Cradlock, together with a number of other gentlemen now numerous to mention.

The promptness and aptitude in which they give signals was eminently satisfactory to the brethren, and always received their prompt approval of "Let it be recorded," which was done. It will afford me pleasure to give the proper solution on meeting the gallant officers when assigned to duty.

No. 400
Cavalry Brigade.

Belle Point.

Born—On Thursday night, to Mr. El. Brumner and wife, a son—Frank Lewis.

Judge W. L. Pence and wife left for Cincinnati Friday morning for a short visit.

Mr. Curtis Sanford, son of Mr. H. Sanford, the Assessor, is very sick with typhoid fever.

Judge Pence has three good two-horse wagons for sale cheap. Apply at office, in Belle Point.

Miss Dolly Littlejohn, of Anderson county, is visiting the family of Mr. Fisher, at the Lock.

Miss Sadie Pugh, of Virginia, was the guest of Miss Annie Crutcher one evening this week.

Miss Emma Danks, who visited Miss Lena Rogers last week, returned to her home in Lorraine Tuesday morning.

Mr. A. W. Hamilton, who has been in had health all summer, is now confined to his bed with very little hopes for his recovery.

The singing class met with Mr. C. S. Sullivan, on Front street, Tuesday evening. There was a good crowd present and some excellent music.

Miss Florence Collins entertained in elegant style quite a number of her friends at her home near town, White Hall. Friday evening of last week. All present seemed to have a splendid time.

The Belle Point Quinville Band are an elegant hop Friday evening at Pink Cottage, on Benson Avenue. There was a good, orderly crowd present, and everything passed off pleasantly. The next hop will be announced in due time.

The Sunday-school still continues to increase in number. There were about eighty present last Sunday afternoon, which was a very good crowd, considering the inclement weather.

Bro. Jas. Lewis was to have preached after Sunday-school, but was prevented from coming over by illness.

The following officers were appointed to serve at the January election: Judges, A. G. Bailey, Jas. D. Moore, Sheriff, R. S. Brumner, Clerk, Chas. L. McKee.

There will be five Candidates to elect, and as yet I have heard of no candidates. I think we would do well to recollect the old Council, as they have served the people as well as any we have ever had.

Restaurant Opening.

Mr. James Gibbons has opened his restaurant on St. Clair street, formerly occupied by H. S. Ellis, and will keep it open day and night. An experienced cook has been engaged, and everything will be served in the best style. Give him a trial.

The Turf Restaurant, St. Clair street, open day and night.

A dozen eggs just now are worth as much as the hen which laid them.

Our merchants are complaining that so far trade has been unusually dull this Christmas.

Another teacher in the Public School is to be married, making the fifth in a little more than a year.

Senator Williams has again introduced his bill in the Senate to provide for pensioning Mexican soldiers.

One of the prettiest and most tempting displays in the city is to be found in the window of Mr. Jas. M. Todd.

There is general complaint among our merchants that this is the dullest Christmas they have seen for several years.

Twenty-eight convicts were received at the Penitentiary Tuesday morning from Lexington—seven women and twenty-one men.

The Council Chamber, City Clerk's office, and Police Court-room in the City Hall are being cleaned up and gotten ready for occupancy next week.

Mr. Jas. M. Daley will open a saloon and restaurant in the room in the old Commonwealth building lately occupied by Capt. Jack Veach.

The contract for putting up the Presbyterian Church building in South Frankfort has been let to Messrs. Clark & Kirk, of this city, for $2,450.

The Council on Tuesday night, by a decided vote, determined not to rent the store-room in the City Hall next the Bahr Hotel for bar-room purposes.

The Masonic Lodges of this city will hold their regular annual election of officers on Thursday evening, Dec. 27th, the anniversary of St. John the Evangelist.

The Council on Tuesday night ordered bids to be received for rebuilding the foot bridge across the hollow in front of Mrs. Page's property on Ewing street.

After the first of January Mr. L. B. Marshall will remove his news depot and fruit stand to the room at the old Mansion House corner formerly occupied by Mr. John M. Banta.

The L. & N. Railroad will sell round trip tickets between all stations on its line for one fare, good returning until January 25, 1884. A good chance to go and spend the holidays with your friends.

Hon. John S. Olell, Representative from Anderson county, has rented one of Miss Venie Herndon's new houses, and will remove his family here and keep house during the session of the Legislature.

Three inches of snow fell Sunday, which brought out a few sleighs for a short time and lived up to the coal and boot and shoe trade considerably. About every other day since we have had another installment of the beautiful.

About seven o'clock Thursday morning the wharf boat of the Mail Line Company, tied up to the City Wharf, began to leak and sank rapidly until she was nearly under water. The watchman was asleep on board of her at the time and Mr. George B. Macklin had to send a man down to wake him up. Considerable freight was on board of her at the time, and only a few barrels of flour belonging to Messrs. Miles & Son were gotten off before the water came in.

The people of Frankfort should patronize the new wholesale and retail coal firm of S. & J. H. Todd, for they have come to stay. Office at H. R. Williams' grocery, Southside, where Mr. Peter E. Todd can always be found ready to wait on customers.

E. Powers has added Active Club skates to his already large variety of skates.

Almanacs and calendars for 1884 have made their appearance.
